

Appointment of Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff
December 22, 1993

The President and Chief of Staff Thomas F. “Mack” McLarty today announced the appointment of Harold Ickes to be Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff, reporting to Mr. McLarty. In that capacity, Ickes will have major responsibility for efforts to enact the health security act next year.

The President made the following statement:

“I am pleased that my good friend Harold Ickes will be joining our team. Harold combines a savvy political sense, honed by years of experience in national politics, with a deep commitment to improving the lives of average citizens. I admire his insight and his sharp wit.”

Nomination for Director of the United States Mint
December 22, 1993

The President announced today that he intends to nominate Phillip N. Diehl, until recently the Chief of Staff at the Department of the Treasury, to be the Director of the U.S. Mint.

“As a senior member of Secretary Bentsen’s staff, both in the Senate and at the Treasury, and during his service in Texas’ State Government, Phil Diehl has distinguished himself as a public servant of high quality,” said the President. “He has the skills and experience that it takes to be an effective manager of the U.S. Mint.”
